Numb. 7726.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday August 8. to Saturday August 12. 1738.

From the Imperial Camp at Lugos, July 27.

YEsterday about Six in the Evening, the Garrison of Meadia, and a Regiment of Hussars from Teregova, arrived at the Camp. This Morning at Four, a Courier arrived from Count Munich, with an Account that the Russian Army, consisting of 90000 Men, had passed the Bog; and that on the 11th Instant the Turkish Army, consisting of about 100,000 Men, Turks and Tartars, endeavoured to force their Camp 14 Days March from Bender, but were repulsed and lost a good Number of Men; the Loss of the Russians was but 100. The Baggage marched this Morning at Six, and the Army is to march at Eight towards Belgrade.

Dresden, Aug. 13, N. S. A Courier is arrived here from Naples with Advice, that their Sicilian Majesties continue in good Health, and that the Electoral Prince Royal received Benefit from the hot Baths. According to the last Advices from Poland, we may soon have News, either that Bender is besieged, or Count Munich repulsed; for when those Advices were dispatched, which was about a Fortnight since, he was but five Days March from the Dniester, and the Turkish Army had been reinforced by 15000 Janissaries. The Poles begin to be very apprehensive from the Violence of the Plague in Temeswaer, and all over those Parts. Our last News from the Army in Hungary came by the Way of Vienna; in general they confirm the Loss of Meadia, and the bad State of the Imperial Army, occasioned by Want of Provisions, by the Dysentery among the Soldiers, and Variance among the Generals.

Whitehall, August 11, 1738.

Whereas divers evil-disposed Persons have, for some time past, made a Practice of filing Guineas, and putting them off at the Bank, and other Places: His Majesty, for the apprehending the Persons concerned in filing Guineas as aforesaid, is pleased to promise a Reward of One Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward allowed by Act of Parliament, upon Conviction of each of the Persons concerned in the abovesaid Practice. And whereas John Carter, and Francis Kelham, against whom Informations have been taken upon Oath, have, since the Discovery of these Facts, left their Habitations, and absconded: His Majesty is pleased to promise the like Reward for the apprehending of each of them, upon their or either of them being convicted. And, as a further Encouragement, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any Person who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices in the said Facts.

HARRINGTON.

John Carter is a tall thin Man, of a pale Complexion, and is lame of one Foot, which turns inwards; he is a Watch-Graver by Trade, formerly kept an Alehouse in West-Smithfield, but lodged last at the Duke's Head in St. John's Square.

Francis Kelham, a little Man with a red Complexion, who kept the Rose and Crown Ale-house in Bartholomew Close, till he absconded. They have both been frequently seen at Horse Races, Gaming-Tables, Hazard, and Cockfighting Matches. Whoever apprehends either of the said Persons, or any other Person concerned in these Practices, may apply themselves to Mr. Ashton, in Surry-street in the Strand, or to Mr. North, near Fishmongers-Hall, in Thames street.

Admiralty Office, August 8, 1738.

His Majesty having been graciously pleased, by his Warrant under his Royal Sign Manual, dated the 10th of June, 1733, to establish certain Rules and Orders for the better Government of the Charity for the Relief of poor Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy: These are to give Notice to all such Widows, whose Husbands died on or since the 30th of August, 1732, that Copies of the said Rules and Orders are lodged with the Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy at Chatham, Portsmouth, and Plymouth, as also with the Clerks of the Cheque at Deptford and Woolwich, and the Naval Officers at Harwich, Deal, and Kinsale, where they may be informed of all Particulars which entitle them to the Benefit of the said Charity, and receive the proper Certificates for that Purpose: But such Widows as live at too great a Distance from the Places abovementioned, may apply by Letter to Thomas Corbett, Esq;

(Price Two Pence.)

Esq; at the Admiralty Office, who will send them all necessary Information. And the Governors of the said Charity intending to distribute some Relief to the Widows of such Sea Officers who died before the 30th of August, 1732, and whose Circumstances come within the Rules of the Establishment, these are to give Notice of the same to all such Widows, that they may procure the proper Certificates and Affidavits, and send or bring them hither. And the Court of Assistants do hereby give Notice, that they will meet at this Office on Tuesday the 19th of September next, at Eight of the Clock in the Morning, to receive the Claims of such Widows, as shall be qualified according to the said Rules and Orders.

The Court of Directors of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, give Notice, That they have made an Agreement with the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, to circulate Exchequer Bills made forth or to be made forth, pursuant to several Acts of Parliament made for that Purpose now in Force, for one Year, computed from the 24th day of July 1738, to the 25th day of July 1739.

The Court of Directors of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, give Notice, That the Transfer Books for Bank Stock will be shut from Tuesday the 12th of September next, till Friday the 13th of October following.

Equivalent House, London, Aug. 2, 1738.
